

SOME COMMENTS ON UZBEK RIDDLES RELATED TO HUMAN BODY PARTS

Munis Yunusovna Juraeva*

*Senior Researcher, Doctor of Philosophy in Philology,
Institute of Uzbek Language,
Literature and Folklore of the Academy of Sciences,
Republic of UZBEKISTAN

DOI: 10.5958/2249-7315.2021.00167.2

ABSTRACT

No matter how small the genre of riddles, it is full of great meanings and mysteries. In particular, in addition to the meaning that requires an answer in the traditional riddles that have survived to the present day for centuries, there are many mysteries that have shaped the worldviews and thoughts of our ancient ancestors. This article discusses the genesis of riddles related to human body parts.

KEYWORDS: Riddle Body Parts, Taboo, Hair, Eyes, Teeth, Magic.

REFERENCES:

1. Hagen-Thorn NI. The magical significance of hair and headdresses in wedding ceremonies in Eastern Europe. Ethnography. Moscow. 1933;(5-6):76-88;
2. Cherchiev AM. About the motive of wonderful hair in Dagestan mythology. Problems of mythology and beliefs of the peoples of Dagestan. – Makhachkala. 1988. pp. 52-59.
3. Husainova Z. Riddles. Uzbek folk art. Tashkent: Literature and Art Publishing House, 1981. P. 30.
4. Ashirov A. Ancient beliefs and ceremonies of the Uzbek people. Publishing House of the National Library of Uzbekistan named after Alisher Navoi. Tashkent. 2007. pp. 49-50.
5. Sarimsoqov B. Uzbek ceremonial folklore. – Tashkent: Fan Publishing House. 1986. pp. 121-211.
6. Musaqulov A. Uzbek folk lyrics. - Tashkent: Fan Publishing House. 2010. p. 85.