

NEW INNOVATIVE METHODS OF TEACHING MUSIC IN SECONDARY SCHOOLS

Khudoynazarova Sayyora Mirzapulatovna*

*Master of Namangan State University,
UZBEKISTAN

Email id: sayyoraxudoynazarova5@gmail.com

DOI: 10.5958/2249-7315.2022.00092.2

ABSTRACT

This article describes in detail the general analysis of music lessons in secondary schools, ways to increase students' interest in music lessons, innovative pedagogical technologies and their types in lessons, the use of innovative technologies and the use of various games in music lessons.

KEYWORDS: Lesson, Student, Technology, Analysis, Teacher, Method, Music, Instruments, Dance, Education.

REFERENCES

1. Nurmatov H, Yuldasheva N. Creativity of Uzbek folk music. Tashkent: G. Ghulam; 2007. p.23.
2. Ismailova M. Formation of spiritual and moral qualities of students through folk songs. Tashkent: Istiqlol; 2000. p.53.
3. Sharipova G, Najmetdinov G, Khodjayeva Z. Methods of teaching music and school repertoire. Andijan; 2020. p.119.
4. Kadyrov P. Singing loudly in primary school. Tashkent: Teacher; 1997. p.55.
5. Saipova D. The system of music education in foreign countries. Tashkent: Istiqlol; 2000. p.62
6. Sharipova G. Music methodology. Tashkent: Philosophers of Uzbekistan; 2012. p.14.
7. Sharipova G. Music and methods of teaching it. Tashkent: Turon-Iqbol; 2011. p.30.