

REVIEW OF THE DEMOGRAPHIC DEVELOPMENT OF UZBEKISTAN
UNDER THE SOVIET UNION

Rakhimova Gulchekhra Sobirjanovna*; Rasulov Maksad Abbasovich

* Associate Professor,
Doctor of Philosophy in History (PhD),
Department of History,
Kokand State Pedagogical Institute,
UZBEKISTAN

 Lecturer,
Department of Biology,
Kokand State Pedagogical Institute,
UZBEKISTAN

DOI: 10.5958/2249-7315.2022.00171.X

ABSTRACT

This article testifies to the Uzbek SSR in terms of population ranks 3rd among the union republics (after the RSFSRUSSR). The share of the Uzbek SSR in the country's population is 5.9%. According to the 1979 census, the population of the UzSSR was 15,774 thousand people, of which 4,675.9 thousand people lived in cities and 11,098.1 thousand people in rural areas. The population density is 34.4 people. per 1 km².

KEYWORDS: Uzbek SSR, Population, Khanate, Economy, Regions, Demography.

REFERENCES

1. Uzbek SSR. Encyclopedia. -Tashkent. 1981. -B. 63.
2. Uzbek SSR. Encyclopedia. -Tashkent. 1981. -B. 65.